

'S an rud as cudthromaiche a th'ann 's gum bi sibh ri spòrs còmhla! Nì an leanabh agaibh toileachas gu bheil sibh a' cur ùine seachad a' seinn, a' dannsadh agus a' gabhail spòrs còmhla riutha.

The most important thing is to have fun together! Your child will be delighted you're spending time singing, dancing and having fun with them.

For more great Gaelic resources visit www.readtome.ca/Gaelic

NOVA SCOTIA
ALBA NUADH
Office of Gaelic Affairs
Oifis Iomairtean na Gàidhlig

Molaidhean airson a' Ghàidhlig a Chòmpairteachadh ris an Leanabh Agaibh

Tips for Sharing Gaelic with your Baby

Gum meal sibh na leabhraichean Ghàidhlig seo leis an leanabh agaibh. Fiù 's nach eil fhios agaibh p-fhéin air na faclan uile, dèanaibh comharra air na rudan air a bheil eòlas agaibh is abraigibh am facal Ghàidhlig.

Enjoy these Gaelic books with your baby. Even if you don't know all the words yourself, point to the things you do know and use the Gaelic word.

Tha gaol aig leanabhan air a bhi a' cluinntinn ur guth! Co-dhiubh am bi sibh a' seinn tàladh, air neo òran air a dhèanadh suas, seinnibh ris an leanabh agaibh 's a' Ghàidhlig!

Babies love to hear your voice! Whether you sing a lullaby, a rhyme, or a made-up song, sing to your baby in Gaelic!

Bruidhnibh ris an leanabh agaibh 's a' Ghàidhlig gu tric. Cuiribh ainmean air rudan mun cuairt an taighe agus na lìonaige 's a' Ghàidhlig.

Talk to your baby in Gaelic often. Name things around the house and yard in Gaelic.

